Shaun provides specialist corporate and personal insolvency advice to businesses, individuals and financial institutions. With over 17 years practicing in insolvency, Shaun has managed formal and informal appointments across a variety of industries.

As a former Senior Regulation Inspector with the Australian Financial Security Authority (AFSA), his clients benefit from his unique and comprehensive insolvency skills. Shaun furthered his specialisation in formal insolvency and informal business restructuring whilst working at Big Four firms.

Shaun is passionate about helping people overcome their financial difficulties and avoid financial distress. Shaun's clients value his drive, enthusiasm, empathy, strong ethics, honesty and desire to consistently exceed expectations. He provides complete and timely access to information and undertakes a collaborative approach to decision making with his clients.

Shaun is aware of the impact financial stress can have on debtors and creditors and, for this very reason Shaun is dedicated to helping people get out of debt and better manage their financial situations.

Shaun's mission is to educate the general public, especially small business owners on the financial options available to them. Shaun aims to cultivate a better understanding of the importance of seeking professional advice early to help minimise financial difficulties in the future.
